

Music Students Entry Questionnaire - Piano.

Name: _____

Date: _____

You are about to embark on the journey of learning a musical instrument. This takes a great deal of dedicated time and commitment. Many students start the process, only to give up quickly because they find they have not got that time and commitment available to them. This questionnaire is designed to help you think carefully through the commitment you are about to take on. Please fill it in as honestly as you can.

1. What has made you want to start learning a musical instrument now? _____

2. Have you got access to a piano on a daily basis? _____
3. Where is that piano situated? _____

Practice is the key to your success. You will need to be able to practice daily.

4. When in your day do you generally envisage that you will do your practice? _____

5. How much time have you got available to you to practice per day _____, and per week _____

You will need to be able to attend a weekly lesson with me.

6. Do you have any work or other commitments that are likely to take you away from your normal routine unexpectedly? _____
7. Does your job demand that you have to go away from home at short notice? _____

The answers to these questions will help you determine whether you think this is the right time for you to take on this new challenge.
